Vienna, May 2. N. S. Sunday laſt having been appointed a Day of ſolemn Devotion, for imploring a Bleſſing on the Arms of his Imperial Majeſty and his Allies this enſuing Campaign, there was a general Proceſſion of all the Orders of the Clergy, with great Numbers of the Laiety, from the Church of the barefoot Auguſtin Friars to the Cathedral, at which the Emperor and Empreſs aſſiſted, being attended by the whole Court. The Diet of Hungary is ſtill taken up in preparing a Repreſentation of the Grievances of that Kingdom, which they judge neceſſary to be redreſs'd, in order to ſoften the Minds of the People, and incline them to Terms of Accommodation. The Malecontents have inveſted Dotis, and attack'd it with great Vigor, in hopes to be Maſters of it before any Troops can come to its Relief. They have poſted ſome Troops near Gini, a little below Javarin, and others at Karawar, to interrupt the Navigation of the Danube. A Courier is arriv'd here from Milan with Advice, That Marſhal Staremberg left that Place on the 17th of the laſt Month, and went to Genoa, intending imbark for Barcelona with the firſt Opportunity.

Copenhagen, May 8. N. S. The 27th of the laſt Month being the Anniverſary of the Queen-Mother's Birth-Day, on which her Majeſty enter'd into the 58th Year of her Age, the King, the whole Court, all the foreign Miniſters, and Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes, made their Complements of Congratulation to her Majeſty on that Occaſion. The King and the Court, for the greater Conveniency, din'd at the Place appointed for the Honours of the Day. After Dinner a Carouſſel was perform'd with extraordinary Addreſs and Magnificence. His Majeſty conferred, a blue Ribbon, being the Order of the Elephant on Count Anthony of Altenburg; and three white Ribbons, the Order of Dannebrog on Monſieur Pleſſen, firſt Chamberlain to Prince Charles; Monſieur Ketchaw, Marſhal to the Queen-Mother; and the third to Monſieur Plato, Marſhal to the King. The Swediſh Envoy has lately preſented a Letter to the King, ſign'd by his Majeſty of Sweden and the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, as Directors of the Circle of Lower-Saxony, wherein his Daniſh Majeſty is inform'd of the March of the Troops of the Circle towards Hamburg, purſuant to an Imperial Commiſſion lately iſſu'd out for compoſing the Diſorders of that City.

Berne, May 5. N. S. We have yet no Account from Zurich, that the Ratifications of the Treaty of Neutrality for Neufchatel are exchang'd, tho' we do not hear that there hath ariſen any new Incident which may occaſion further difficulty or delay, the French Ambaſſador having aſſur'd the Cantons, that the Ratification ſent him from Court is exactly in the ſame Form as was agreed upon at the Diet of Arrau. The laſt Letters this Canton hath receiv'd from their Deputies at Zurich ſay, they are in hopes of accommodating the Differences about the Buſineſs of Tockenburg in ſuch a manner, that the Proteſtants of that Country will be ſtill more ſecure in the free Enjoyment of their Religion and Liberties.

Hamburg, May 8. N. S. The Troops of the Princes who have taken upon 'em to quiet our Diſorders, are approaching this City; and upon the receiving that Intelligence, the Miniſters of Sweden, Pruſſia, Hanover and Wolfenbuttel are gone from hence, in order to concert Meaſures with the Commanding Officers of the reſpective Forces belonging to their Maſters. In the mean time the Miniſters of Great Britain, Denmark, and the States General continue here. Count Guildenſtern, who is to command in Chief on this Occaſion, ſent an Officer on the fifth Inſtant into the Territory of Bergdorff, to let them know thoſe Forces would Rendezvous there on the 12th Inſtant, and that a certain Sum of Mony with all manner of Proviſions muſt neceſſarily be prepar'd before their Arrival, without which he could not anſwer for the ſafety of the Neighbourhood againſt the Diſorders which uſually ariſe among Troops when ſuch Precautions are neglected. The Senate and all the States of the City aſſembled Yeſterday, to conſider what may be proper for them to act in a conjuncture wherein the Intereſt of the City of Lubeck is alſo concern'd, that place having a joint Property with Hamburg over the Territory of Bergdorff; but the Council were ſo divided in their Opinions, that they broke up without coming to any Reſolution.

Bruſſels, May 14. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough having taken an Account of the good Condition of our Troops in Garriſon at Ghent, and given the neceſſary Orders for their taking the Field, left that Place the 11th Inſtant, and came hither in the Afternoon. Upon his Arrival he was waited on by the Council of State, the General Officers, and other Perſons of Quality, who came to welcome his Grace into this Country. He will continue here for a few Days longer, while the Army is aſſembling, all the Troops at any diſtance being now in Motion towards their Rendezvous. Letters from the Enemies Frontiers ſay, the Dukes of Burgundy and Berry are expected at Valenciennes the 15th, and that the Elector of Bavaria was to ſet out this Day for the Upper-Rhine. He propoſes to meet the Duke of Berwick at Strasbourg on the 20th of this Month, and by that time to have brought together the Troops in thoſe Parts: Thoſe of Bavaria, Cologn and ſeveral Spaniſh Regiments are on their March that way from this Country.

Hague, May 15. N. S. We have Reports from ſeveral parts, that there has been an Action between 6000 Swediſh Horſe, and a Body of Muſcovite Foot, the Succeſs whereof is variouſly reported. Vice-Admiral Peterſon, who commands the Squadron, which is to cruiſe near Dunkirk, ſet out this Day, in order to go on Board and ſail the firſt fair Wind.
